

Hope for Today

When I'm lost and feeling in trouble
Can't seem to find my way
What I need is a little direction
So I listen close and I hear Jesus say . . .

I am your hope for today
I am till the end of the age
I am this dark world's light
I am the way the truth and the life

Many times I see my reflection
Don't like the shape the I see
A bit of fear, a lot of confusion
So I turn right around and He's talking to me . . .

Got some friends along on this journey
We got our map in hand
Marked with love, forgiveness and mercy
We'll offer Him praise and walk on His path
